DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group A, claim(s) 1-4, drawn to a waste balancing system with a scale, source of replacement fluid, and a controller.

Group B, claim(s) 5-8, drawn to a waste balancing system with a fluid circuit, waste container and conduit, replacement fluid conduit, weight sensor, and controller.

Group C, claim(s) 9-18, drawn to a tandem waste balancing system with a first and second balance chamber with sensors and a controller.

Group D, claim(s) 19-28, drawn to a waste balancing system with a first and second container, support, pressure generator, and controller.

Group E, claim(s) 29-33, drawn to a multiple fluid balancing system comprising first, second, third, and fourth containers with pressure generators.

Group F, claim(s) 34-39, drawn to a method of controlling a blood treatment system.

2. The inventions listed as Groups A-F do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Claims 1-34 lack an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over US 4,661,246 to Ash in view of US 5,641,405 to Keshaviah et al. Ash discloses a dialysis system that uses a proportioning system to control fluid flow to and from the patient during dialysis. The system comprises a scale for weighing the apparatus, allowing that value to be extrapolated to estimate the patient's weight. The system further comprises various optical flow sensors, pumps, clamps, and pressure transducers to monitor and control fluid flow. Ash fails to disclose a patient scale, but does use weight to control fluid flow. Keshaviah discloses a dialysis system that uses patient weight to control fluid flow therein. Since Ash specifically discloses that an estimate of patient weight is a factor in controlling fluid flow, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to add the patient scale as disclosed by Keshaviah to the system disclosed by Ash in order to more accurately control the extracorporeal fluid flow.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. NOTE: The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

Misnumbered claims 24-34 been renumbered 29-39.
